

Prophanity, The Battleroar

[Music:Olsson / Lyrics:Jarrebring]

A thousand shining spears
Beatings of the wardrums
Our horde is gathered
Ready for the battle
On the other side
Not far away
The battletroops
Of our enemies

It is freezing cold
The dawn is near
The magic red sun
Is beginning to rise
It is time for the battle
It is time for the war

We bend our bows
Let's hear the battleroar
The first sign goes
The arrows are on their way
Raising our shields
It's raining arrows
Over our heads
The battle is on

I love the war
We raise our swords
Listen to the great sound
The battleroar

I have my faith
I have my sword
Meeting in the middle
The clash of our hordes
Screams of pain across the field
Man to man, steel to steel
Bleeding warriors all over the field
Warm blood covering the snow
The war is here, I love the roar
