

Prussian Blue, Not A Problem

You can stay afraid
Alone in the dark
But at least I'm out here
In the light..
At least I'm not afraid
To say what I think
While your thoughts stay hidden
Out of sight.

So there's not a problem
With the way I was raised
There's not a problem
You shouldn't be afraid

At least I'm not alone
I've come out of the dark
While your all alone Inside your own world
Well its time that you faced
The real world honey Though you might not prefer
Reality.. There's not a problem,
With what I believe.
