

Psapp, The Monster Song

Look out the door,
That's what it's for
And tell me what do you see?
I do believe
That through the trees
There's something hiding from me

The window's wide
It climbs inside
But I don't hear it creeping
I know its plan
Because it can
It gets me while I'm sleeping

Oh, and it's happening again
It is laughing in the rain
When it gets me I will Never be the same

Come out the dark
And join the march
And we'll taste victory, I know
And through the crowds
And bustling sounds
There's something waiting for me

It wears disguise
A faint surprise
Though I can see its yellow eyes

Oh, I can hear it as it comes
And it wants to taste my blood
We're already lost, my love
We'll never be the same

An open gate will close at eight
I'll bolt the door and pace the floor
I still believe
Behind the leaves
There's something waiting for me

A rising fear
Tells me it's near
And I'm about to be consumed
The monster looms
And soon I know I will be
Dead and gone

Oh, and it's happening again
And I do not like this pain
Now it's got me,
I will never be the same

You know I like to go
For familiar feelings
And when they show
They only grow
I can't hide their meanings

You know I like to go
For familiar feelings
