

Psychopunch, Back for Good

They kicked my ass when I was young

I sure as hell didn't have a lot of fun

Back in the fast lane, I'm running with the pack

Just like a madman and now I'm coming back

I cracked the mirror, seven years of hell

Born in the fire and cursed under a spell

Here today, no matter what you say

I do the best I can, but no one understands

Guess I'm a nice guy, baby after all

I'm slow and easy until the madman calls

Oh, what a nightmare, they try to hold me down

I count the days before I burn this fucking town

Well alright, hard-on tonight

I'm going all the way, no matter what they say

I'm back for good let the devil sing my song

I'm back where I belong, ooh yeah

Kicking like a horse ay superman

So bad that I'll be damned, ooh yeah

Hey baby let's burn the past

Sure as hell gonna kick some ass

Well alright, I feel so good tonight

I'm going all the way

No matter what you say
