And I - I won't be stupid State the obvious - pleasant platitudes Bad policies - mega magnitude Magnificent

And I - would not be surprises If next door's roses died And I - would not be overcome with grief When, in the shadow's cast

The trees lose all their leaves Two cheeks to the wind - three sheets to set sail Bow in the storm - we'll die in the water My armada - three sheets to set sail Bow in the storm - we'll die in the water

And a head of wax - should not walk in the sun Pride goes before the fall - let's make feathers fly Two cheeks to the wind - three sheets to set sail Bow in the storm - we'll die on the water

My armada - led to the slaughter My armada - nothing but murder To conquer and blunder Led to the slaughter Nothing but murder
