Public Image Limited, Criminal

Like a criminal. Did you think it could be like on TV? Where you could be big in your own movie? Did real life let you down? A genuine Pygmalion. CHORUS: (Criminal) Like a criminal. (No) No good to anyone. (Foolish) Gotta get a life and get sensible. (No) No pity, no pardon. Criminal. Just like a criminal. Could've been a factor. Could've been another distracter. Some like it in limousines, I like it in a tractor. Solo, separate, not just one of a crowd. Indifferent to compliment. I leave my funeral ground. CHORUS (Criminal) Like a criminal. (No) No pity, no pardon. Just a criminal. Haven't got a clue. Cannot comprehend anything you value. I'm probably just like you. Yes, I haven't got a clue. Just let that Judas goat lead you down that narrowing path. As affluence is your influence. You'll be of no consequence. CHORUS (Criminal) Like a criminal. (No) No pity, no pardon. Yes, I haven't got a clue. Just like a criminal. I can not comprehend anything you value. Probably just like you. Yes, I haven't got a clue. I cannot comprehend anything you value.
