

Puddle Of Mudd, Moonshine

You're the moonshine
Your aura separates the lines so I can drive on in Drive into your life, but don't you worry
Try not to hurry, but don't forget to smell the roses
The flowers that I got for you to mend a wound inside
In a distant place where I can run with you all night
You're like the moonshine

(Chorus)

Moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?
You're a moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?

Keep your composure, don't let nobody inside the circle
That remains tragic, somehow ancient and less abusive to you
But you know how to get through, everything when there's problems surrounding
So many problems surrounding
I'm gonna mend a wound inside
In a distant place where I can run with you all night
You're the moonshine

(Chorus)

Moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?
Moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?

Why we had to fall apart? (3x)

(Chorus)

Moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?
Moonshine stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out, figure why we had to fall apart?
