Working! Working!

I'll show the characteristics of a professional
No matter what it is, I will do my best
In order to show a smile to everyone

You always put on your makeup
With your deceiving smile
But did it have to be so?
Could all of the results be true?

Was it only you at the bottom of my heart?
Was it only you that showed tears?
You did your best, so cheer up
But it's cruel somehow

Working! Working!

If you fall in love, you'll get confused
No matter what happens in my dreams
I won't show my tears to everyone

I'll try an image change and fight off my true self
Don't assume that you're a failure
Tomorrow, you're the only one for me

Your mother and me are the only ones
That decided that your heart is as strong as a woman's and no longer as kind as a woman's

Working! Working!
I'll show the characteristics of a professional
No matter what it is, I will do my best
In order to show a smile to everyone

Working! Working!
If you fall in love, you'll get confused
No matter what happens in my dreams
I won't show my tears to everyone

Working! Working!
