You're the guidepost
On the road I walk
Since we two met I'm so happy
That I'm not afraid of anything
Tra la la, tra la la
Our footprints go on forever
Hand in hand, just a little further
Let's go far as we can
Shall we make a memory or two?
Because you are here
Another joyful day is ending
And together if we share them
All our sorrows will be halved
Fa la la, drifting lightly
We might forget about work forever
Hand in hand we'll go on
Before we know it look how far we've come
Never straying from our path
We've gotten older, maybe selfish, too
We won't do anything we don't want to
There's no time to spare, but that's okay
So the two of us keep doing
The same things over and over again
Tra la la, tra la la la la
One thing you said I'll always remember
Hand in hand, just a little further
Let's keep going far as we can
Fa la la, fa la la la la
It's all so much like a dream
Hand in hand, but if we should let go
We'll soon be holding hands again
