A new curtain rises; we've come a roundabout way but we finally met
On my smouldering feelings you cast a magic spell; let's open this heavy door

Right now, let's go! The beginning of an adventure
Come on, let's jump out there to the other end of that sky

The map of the future that I imagine; I'm sure with you; we'll always do as we please
Facing hardships; this ball of unrelenting strength; let's carry it and keep walking

That's right! From here on everything begins!
On this land we'll trust so much it shakes!
No matter how small, we won't lose any dreams!
In the world out there our friends are waiting!

Sometimes, a few tears drip out on nights like that
I don't just sit still and worry, I really come running!

Water, Grass, Electric, Bug, Bird, Gas, Rock, Ice, Fire
Ground, Flying, Psychic, Normal, Fighting, all of them are my friends, that's why!

That's right! From here on everything begins!
On this land we'll trust so much it shakes!
Everyone, in reality, is lonely when by himself
Because at this pace I just keep on making friends!

Rapidly! Courage! Increasing! Increasing!
Gradually! Heroes! All of us! All of us!
