&lt;/lyrics&gt;

Is it still raining outside?

When it stops, do you want to go out?

Shall we walk hand-in-hand, not wearing hats?

There was a puppy in the empty lot on the riverbank
Next to it a small child was crying
And next to them a young couple was kissing under a tree

The reason we're living like this
Is because life's not fulfilling enough
Where on earth is happiness?
Just what is important?

People always worry about questions
That have no answers
Realizing this, I became an adult
