

Puffy AmiYumi, Happiness

Of all the people in the park, who is happy ?
The kid in the sand box, or the old one watching ?

Of the lovers in a love nest, who is happy ?
The girl shampooing, or the boring boy ?

The smaller it is, the more mellow
A journal entry before going to sleep.

What makes you happy ?
Maybe happiness is doing nothing

The smaller it is, the more mellow
You get some things, some things remain
Things I still remember.

The smaller it is, the longer you wait
Happy tears from a gift from you
