

Puffy AmiYumi, So Long Zero

You thought tonight You'd have me all figured out once again your trusting fool lost in your eyes I'd miss the lies just like before well dude it's time you went to school

I've been on to you from nearly the start your every empty lame excuse under your thumb I'm not that dumb so hit the bricks
go find another girl
that you make lovesick

So long zero
I'm going solo
so long zero
with you I'm better off alone

Did you really think I took it so bad
the night I caught you with that girl no big surprise you aren't that sly the way you play
you never thought for once I'd leave you someday

So long zero
I'm going solo
so long zero
with you I'm better

Your world's a house of mirrors it's a bit much just like your smooth apologizing

You never had my going with all that stuff thank God it's gone forever means nothing whatsoever now

So long zero
I'm going solo
so long zero
I'm going solo

So long zero
I'm going solo
so long zero
I'm going solo
