

Pug Jelly, Audra

There was something with your hair,
That makes me feel this way, and i can't help it.
It's just the way i feel inside...
There was something with your eyes,
That no one else could have... Only an angel.
Not capable of any lies

You're far away and i'm feeling lonely
There's nothing more i can do...
You're another world away and i love you...

You say that i'm you're star...
You're one your very own. And yes you mean it, i don't wanna be alone
I say i'll find you someday...
I'll find you, take you away, from everything, everything we've ever known.

You're far away and i'm feeling lonely, there's nothing more i can do.
You're another world away.....

Look into my eyes see snow flakes, stars and sky blue
Nothing in this world will keep me from finding you.
You've got the key to my heart in your hands, so keep them oh please do.
One thing that is true, i still love you.

You're my angel, you're my angel, you're my angel and i'm glad i'm in love with you
You're my angel, you're my angel, you're my angel and i'm glad i'm in love with you
I know i'm in love with, i'm glad i'm in love with you
