

Pug Jelly, Clean Slate

Staring at a box, claimed to be the tv screen
Staring aimlessly at what our lives should be
Why should we strive just to be like that?
Alcoholised, criticised, rounded up and shot

Avoid striving to be, something you're not
Don't fake your smiles and perceive your morals as wrong, but they are write
Stay stead fast and don't live a lie

Little boy pretending, he is super man

Hoping one day he'll fly off to a better land
Instability gone, justice is in control
No one's around to tell him to pay the doll

Avoid striving to be, something you're not
Don't fake your smiles and perceive your morals as wrong, but they are write
Stay stead fast and don't live a lie

Nothing's wrong, nothings right
Only thing you gotta do is put up a fight
Don't try to be, some one like me
The only thing you gotta do is dream
Is dream...
