

Pug Jelly, It's Over When I'm Sober

Now that it's over, feeling more sober,
I think i should tell you we'll always be friends.
Now you're forever changing you can kick my ass for saying that,
You look like LeAnn Rimes.

Step back you're smothering me,
When i'm trying to breathe,
We will never be, so step back from me!
So step back from...

Me and you won't be the same as we use to,
Feeling discomfort when you come around,
Now we're forever changing our minds and you won't be staying,
Please check your baggage at the door.
