

Pug Jelly, Myself

I wish that i,
Was someone kind of like you.
I tried so hard,
But the world ain't big enough for two.
My mind runs,
Imagination creates a new world.
And everything's different,
And i'm not acting myself.

Try hard to be,
Someone different, different to me.

Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming.
Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming.

Now, maths class,
What is the number?
Under the desk with the green cucumber.
Cheese, cheddar, fay and pie.
I'm thinking there's a fulcrum between her thighs.
I start to tremble,
My mind goes wild.
I wish that i was the perfect man inside,
The perfect man with the perfect plan.
The perfect cheat, with the perfect scam.

Try hard to be,
Someone different, different to me.

Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming.
Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming now.

Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming.
Wish i could be myself,
Wish i could be myself.
Now everything's changing,
Look how cool my lights are coming now.

My lights are coming now,
My lights are coming now.
My lights are coming now,
My lights are coming now.
My lights are coming now,
My lights are coming now.
My lights are coming now,
My lights are coming now.
