Pulp, Cocaine Socialism

I thought that you were joking / When you said "I want to see you To discuss your contribution / To the future of our nation's heart and soul Six o'clock, my place, Whitehall" / Well I arrived just after seven But you said " It doesn't matter " / " I understand your situation And your image, and I'm flattered / Oh and I'd just like to tell you That I love all of your albums / Could you sign this for my daughter? She's in hospital, her name is Miriam / Now get down to the gist: Do you want a line of this? / Are you a (sniff) / socialist?" " Doin' fine, yeah! / Buzzin' all the time / Just one hit / And I feel great And I support / The welfare state / Oh, you must be socialist 'Cos you're always off out on the piss / In your private member's bar Oh yes you are / Yer superstar / Well you sing about common people And the mis-shapes and the misfits / So can you bring them to my party And get them all to sniff this? / And all I'm really saying Is come on and rock the vote for me / All I'm really saying Is come on roll up that note for me / The gist of all of this is Do you want hits or d'you want misses? / Are you a socialist, yeah Socialist, yeah / Socialist, yeah / Oh yeah" " Yeah, you can be just what you want to be Just as long as you don't try to compete with me And we've waited such a long time For the chance to help our own kind, so now Please come on and tow the party line / Oh you owe it to yourself Don't think of anybody else / And we promise we won't tell Oh we won't tell, and we won't sell" / No we won't / No we won't No we won't
