

Pulp, Dishes

I am not Jesus though I have the same initials -
I am the man who stays home and does the dishes.
& how was your day?

Is that woman still trying to do your head in?

A man told me to beware of 33.

He said, "It was not an easy time for me" but I'll get through even though
I've got no miracles to show you.

*I'd like to make this water wine
but it's impossible.

I've got to get these dishes dry.

Ah...

I'll read a story if it helps you sleep at night.

I've got some matches if you ever need a light.

Oh I am just a man

but I am doing what I can to help you.

[*Repeat]

& I'm not worried that I will never touch the stars

'cos stars belong up in heaven

& the earth is where we are.

Oh yeah.

& aren't you happy just to be alive? Anything's possible.

You've got no Cross to bear tonight. Ah

No not tonight, Ah.

No not tonight, Ah.

I am not Jesus though I have the same initials.
