Pulp, Dishes

I am not Jesus though I have the same initials I am the man who stays home and does the dishes.
& man; how was your day?
Is that woman still trying to do your head in?
A man told me to beware of 33.
He said, & quot; It was not an easy time for me quot; but I'll get through even though I've got no miracles to show you.

*I'd like to make this water wine but it's impossible. I've got to get these dishes dry. Ah...

I'll read a story if it helps you sleep at night. I've got some matches if you ever need a light. Oh I am just a man but I am doing what I can to help you.

[*Repeat]

& I'm not worried that I will never touch the stars 'cos stars belong up in heaven & the earth is where we are.
Oh yeah.

& aren't you happy just to be alive? Anything's possible. You've got no Cross to bear tonight. Ah No not tonight, Ah. No not tonight, Ah. I am not Jesus though I have the same initials.
