

Pulse Ultra, Acceptance (Phase I)

I won't fight for a cause that's been lost
When we gave up our nature -- denial
Too many faces are glowing with pride and assurance
But it's their loss

Don't you see
The skyscrapers
They're too big to bring down

Awareness of our conditioning is slowly seeping, leaking
The cracks we've made in the temple of want do seem useless
But it's their loss

Step away
The mind rapers
They will drown in their greed
Stop the want

Don't let it fuck with you
