

Pulsedriver, Time

I always love you just tell me why you have to go my feelings are so blue so many things I still don't know

I'm no one without you your love was warm and tender I'll never forget you time I will always remember

time I will always remember
time I will always remember

no more no matter what I do When I close my eyes
I still realize
That I belong to you
