

Punchline, Rewind

take this tape
the soundtrack to my brain things that I just can not say to you it's boiling up
I'm on empty
you can't see the scars inside all I know is I'm unknown by these things I can not say

rewind
cause pausing won't cut it this time you're mine
so why can't you understand my mind?

you've gone way too far tonight
you look confused that is nothing new retrace the steps (retrace them!!)

switch sides
why can't you understand my mind?
just this one time

take this tape throw it down (rewind this time)
pick it up and run around (watch it fall now I say)
take this tape throw it down (rewind this time) watch it fall now I say what have you done?
