

Punjabi Mc, Landing

thick black soul moving slow, moving close to you this life i don't know it seems kinda sick to me hold eachother tight walking through to my destiny this glitter in my eye
catches light catches sympathy

your lips are moving but i can't hear what you say stars are falling but you still feel the same way this shield

what is real is believing (ha-ha-ha-aaa)
