

Puracane, Big Day

Big day
It won't be too long
And now I don't feel anything
Are you still there at my side

Big flash
And I hit the ground
And I can't see anyone
Are you still there at my side

He used to hold my head in his arms
Now someone else is keeping us warm
It shouldn't be that long
I don't hate anyone
Anymore

Sinking, falling
Don't let it send you down
Are you wasted, are you dying?
Gods at work
I'm waiting to come around
Waiting naked for a sign

It shouldn't be that long
I don't hate anyone
Anymore

One day
You and I
Reach out too high
Someday
We'll all be there

Big day
It won't be too long
And now I don't need anyone
I'm waiting here for my guide

Big sun to take me away
And now I don't hate anyone
There's someone else at my side

He used to hold my head in his arms
Now someone else is keeping us warm
It shouldn't be that long
I don't hate anyone
Anymore, anymore, anymore, anymore
