

Pure Reason Revolution, Nimos & Tambos

All I've seen is all I dream
See animals & tambourines, & all I can hear is light
Feel the winds & wake the hour
A morning kiss to have not far, & all I can see is night

Tree-lined in city colours, yeah he meant well, she glances wide

He left the room where I was
Hide the light, hide the light
Too much to dream last night
Too much for waking eyes

Free to play, remember days
& set the air, control the waves, & all I can hear is light
Talk of rain through sleepy-times my chosen whims show I'm a child, & all I can see is night

Tree-lined in city colours, yeah he meant well, she glances wide

Hide the light, hide the light
Too much to dream last night
Too much for waking eyes

Still light river over hours of night
Storm-Sky nearer Clouds of Angels. Blind
