Pure Reason Revolution, Nimos & Tambos

All I've seen is all I dream See animals & Damp; tambourines, & Damp; all I can hear is light Feel the winds & Damp; wake the hour A morning kiss to have not far, & Damp; all I can see is night

Tree-lined in city colours, yeah he meant well, she glances wide

He left the room where I was Hide the light, hide the light Too much to dream last night Too much for waking eyes

Free to play, remember days & set the air, control the waves, & all I can hear is light Talk of rain through sleepy-times my chosen whims show I'm a child, & all I can see is night

Tree-lined in city colours, yeah he meant well, she glances wide

He left the room where I was Hide the light, hide the light Too much to dream last night Too much for waking eyes

Still light river over hours of night Storm-Sky nearer Clouds of Angels. Blind
