E.M.P. from the mother and son
Tore the digital down
Dawn of the age of the innocent ones

E.M.P. from the mother and son
Dawn of the age of the innocent ones

The indigo children

Analog time piece sky wide
Sync to the ticker inside
Move to the rhythm of the moon and tide

The indigo children

Sirius Venus and the lunar child
Giggle and the flames grow higher
Dance in a circle around a central fire

(let your light open wide)
Giggle and the flames grow higher

Dance in a circle around a central fire

The indigo children

Wine, song, food and fire
Cloth, shelter and seed
No more need for the old empire
(Fare thee well to the empire)
