

Push Play, The Life

They say we're wasting time
Walking like we're blind
Our look
Trying to find the reason why
Our lines are so unpredictable
My life is not for sale
This one never fails
Not this time
I won't fail
This is our one shot
To break free from this lie
This is the life
This is the dream
And it's nothing as it seems
Every minute
Every second is so real
Now we're on the road
Playing sold out shows
And now they don't know
Who we are tonight
The crowd screams for one more
This is the life
This is the dream
And it's nothing as it seems
Every minute
Every second is so real
This is the life
This is the dream
And it's nothing as it seems
Every minute
Every second is so real
This is the life
This is the dream
And it's nothing as it seems
Every minute
Every second is so real
This is the life
This is the dream
And it's nothing as it seems
Every minute
Every second is so real
