

Pushmonkey, Caught My Mind

"So many people with their
Sordid volitions
So many others come alive
I know that someday, someday, someday
I'll be coming out of here I know I know I know
No no no more lies
I cry when I say yes"
She caught my mind and ran away with it
"Can't be my keeper with your
Candid munitions
I feed my children with my life
And I know that nothing's going to keep me away
So better keep away
When I make my web
And though you know you know
You know you've got a piece of mine
I cry when I say yes"
She caught my mind and ran away with it
"So many others ought to fill my shoes
Because I got big feet
Never had big shoes
Oh mister, mister have you got yourself a shoulder for me
To cry on
Because I cry all day
Since my living got hard
And my nipples got hard
Took off my shirt and said
Look here bastard
What you done to me
Now cry when I say"
I know that someday, someday, someday
I'll be coming out of here I know, I know, I know
No No No more lies
No more lies
She caught my mind and ran away with it
