

Pushmonkey, (This Song Is About) Myself

Take your time, but hurry up You know you're fine, but you're all messed up You may be right, but you don't care cause you're always wrong in your underwear

You're kinda Johnny Lennon
you're kinda Betty Page
you're kinda Curtis Cobain you're kinda Janis J.
Sadder than, than when you started

This Song is about myself, but I ain't a hero
This Song is about myself, but I ain't a hero
You play for keeps cause it's all you know
This song is about myself and now I'm letting go

Save your breath cause you're only talking about yourself in those silly words you look like me but you just don't see how the vultures pick and you might get burned you're kinda Charlie Manson you're kinda Sharon Tate you're kinda Jeffrey Buckley you're kinda Stevie Ray You're sadder than, than when you started

This Song is about myself, but I ain't a hero
This Song is about myself, but I ain't a hero
You play for keeps cause it's all you know
This song is about myself and now I'm letting go

you're kinda Johnny Lennon
you're kinda Betty Page
you're kinda Curtis Cobain you're kinda All the rage you're kinda Sidney Vicious you're kinda in the crowd you're kinda up and coming you're kinda over now
This Song is about myself
This Song is about myself
This song is about myself and now I'm letting go
