

PVRIS, Evergreen

I think I felt God strike me from the top humbled my ass real quick
I thought I had it all but it went wrong
Felt like an acid trip
Bite my tongue
right my wrongs
But I don't wanna deal with it

Came to peace with my ego slipping
I can't help feel like I'm a little alone
It's no use to try What's the point if I still just feel like I'm a little alone?

'Cause no one gives a damn shit
Unless your dead
Or your seventeen
A little born prodigy
Everyone could care less
'Til you're dead or your seventeen
I wanna be evergreen

I wanna feel God show me what I got
And humble my ass real quick
I wanna see you fall
Watch how you crawl when you go on an ego trip
'Cause I earned my stripes
I did my time
I'm jaded but I'm real with it
And I don't wanna deal with shit

Came to peace with my ego slipping
I can't help feel like I'm a little alone

'Cause no one gives a damn shit
Unless your dead
Or your seventeen
A little born prodigy
Everyone could care less
'Til you're dead or your seventeen
I wanna be evergreen
I don't care what they say about me
'Cause I'm gonna be evergreen
I'm gonna be evergreen
I don't care what they Say about me
'Cause I'm gonna be evergreen
I'm gonna be evergreen
