

Pyramaze, Legacy In A Rhyme

Come fly away with me close your eyes and find a place between dream and reality

That's where I live
that's where I breathe oceans of creation...
Again by everything
(I gave my everything, and I still do my love, let me bleed for you)

I'm in hell to make a sacrifice (I know how to make a sacrifice)
I am the poet with the bloodied knife)

A land the I created (A life that I created)

Dreaming dream of memory words goodbye.
(Creating a memory with words of mine)

"I creating memories that may last forever sounds and the pictures that I grow through time
My love, my life
Never seen in their eyes"

(Creating the memories that will last forever,
the sounds and the pictures that echoes through time
My love, my life
My legacy in a rhyme)
