

Q-Tip, End Of Time

(feat. Korn)

Q-Tip:

Just feelin' things out for real, ya know?
Just wanna do me for real, ya know?
No reason to make it complicated, you feelin' agitated,
You love it or you hate it fuck it
Desperation, jumpin' off of street corners here
Hustlahz lookin for buzz like "pop one in here"
Local state officials.yeah they out of touch
Getting money for some, aiyo, ain't nothin' much
But yo let them tell it, we smoke it and we sell it
You don't understand, so don't tell it
You sneakin' souls just for phat diamond golds
Cuz our lady friends have likings for designer clothes
People in my hood think.if I'm lookin raggedy, then the cat is just a weak link
In the very fake chain of oppression.if television taught me any lesson, it's
"Image is Nothing", but yo I got a thirstNothing, but yo I got a thirst Nothing, but yo I got a thirstwhat's first? Your rings or your purse?

Jonathan Davis (KorN):

(Oh boyoh boy! Make your wagers back there! Step livelywomen and children first! The world is coming to an end! Come on nowwe're looking at the end! We have to leave themwe have to leave all our paraphanelias behind.{brought backbrought back.[repeated]} LET'S GOOOOO!)

It's kinda scary you see.
How fucked up things can be
Each time you take a bath
How it could have been your last
There's so much shit around us
Things we can't even see
Is this the end of our line?
That's where I wanna be.that's where I wanna be That's where I want to be.that's where-I want-to be
