

Quasi, You Fucked Yourself

You fucked yourself and you don't know where to go -
Split wide open like a sturgeon for the roe.
Blood red splashed on pure white snow; oh no!
You fucked yourself and you're looking for the goat -
Drowned if you sink, condemned if you float,
You placed the blame but missed the boat.
You fucked yourself; you chose your fate.
You changed your mind when it's too late.
Self-deceit is your worst mistake.
