

Queen Adreena, For I Am The Way

For I am the way,
Burn all effigies of clay walk on water today,
For I am the way

Today I turn my blood to sweetest wine, a holy song imbued with the divine,
Today's the day the gods walk out on me,
the great divide is crossed for you by me,
Today the silent one does have her say, today all contradictions seem o.k., Today's the day that I become the sky, a silent understanding my oh my,
Today for once I'm not the last to learn, today the only bridge I have I burn,
Today's the day the gods walk out on me,
the great divide is crossed for you by me

For I am the way
