

Queen Adreena, Pray For Me

I painted somebody
I painted some more
I painted a house and I opened the door
I made her come inside
I made her feel warm
I mended her heartache,
The one that she tore

Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me

I wrapped her in softness, made her a fire
I gave her the one who fulfilled her desire
I laid off the doctor
Allowed her to see
She doesn't need him now
She's living with me

Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me
Pray for me
