Queens Of The Stone Age, Broken Box

I've got wine & Do you Mine came with a cork I wish yours did too

Everyone just loves you so Well hurray! Now you know where to go

In my head you're all brand new I guess you're really all the same In my head you're all brand new Tell your new boy where i came In my head you're all brand new I just didn't want what you gave In my head you're all brand new Go & amp; find yourself another slave

There you are Ooohh you're so in love, just like juliette Well guess what? That's one thing that you can for-fucking-get

Tears from the sky In pools of pain Well baby tonite, i'm gonna go & dance in the rain

In my head you're all brand new I guess you're really all the same In my head you're all brand new Tell your new boy where i came In my head you're all brand new Take that broken pussy elsewhere In my head you're all brand new Save it baby, i don't care
