

Queensberry, Butterfly

Sometimes you gotta let a good thing go so long to the girl I know I feel it somethings coming over me like a wave taking me where I wanna be Always changing, moving faster than the speed of light

I've been waiting for the moment to be right

CHORUS

Gonna close my eyes gonna say goodbye and I won't look down I'm taking to the sky gonna shed my skin my new life begins you won't recognise me now I've got my wings I'm a butterfly

Caterpillar butterfly Caterpillar butterfly
There is more than meets the eye
Caterpillar butterfly

No one else can know what's going on with me soon everybody's gonna see My new self shines much brighter than before like the sun I won't hold back anymore

Always reaching, searching for a way to catch the light
I've been waiting for the moment to be right

(2x) Caterpillar butterfly Caterpillar butterfly
There is more than meets the eye
Caterpillar butterfly

Funny how the one who's the heart of the party used to be a flower clinging to the wall funny how the girl who couldn't speak her mind has been left behind, now that I'm no longer invisible

(2x) Caterpillar butterfly Caterpillar butterfly
There is more than meets the eye
Caterpillar butterfly
