

Quiet Riot, Free

[Verse 1:]

You criticize the way I talk, You cant know how I feel, yeah yeah yeah.
I sympathize with your dark nature, you dont know what that takes no no no
Its a matter of time now cant you see
Before I turn to your dark enemy
I hear a voice thats telling me

[Chorus:]

Im free, free of the drama, free from the karma, free of the beast
Free, out of my head free of the dread, the moment we met

[Verse 2:]

You cant invade your tired old demons I wont commiserate no no no
You suck the life out of every room how much can I take I dont know
Like a flower that burns you to the touch
Its so beautiful but takes so much
Of the life inside of me
