

Quiet Riot, Slave To Love

You're the hunter, I'm the game
Since we met, I'm not the same
The hunger in you can't be satisfied

You had a secret strategy
To take control and capture me
I lost my will and now I'm paralyzed

We made a slave to love
That's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch
You stole my soul and now I'm just a slave to love, yeah

It took one night at your hotel
To fall from grace into your spell
I can't believe you brought me to my knees

You kiss me once and love me twice
I'm on your mental sacrifice
Your target's touch was hot and aim to please

We made a slave to love
That's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch
You stole my soul and now I'm just a slave to love

Oh, I'm being used
Been held hostage for so long
Is this a one way love affair
Really wrong

We made a slave to love
That's what I'll always be
A victim of your touch
You stole my soul and now I'm just a slave to love

Just a slave to love

Just a slave to love
A victim of your touch
