

Quietdrive, Secret

hey bride of mine i love you so why'd you find another who would make love with you death do us part might be true before the doctor asked me what did i do hey here's the crime if you've got time i'll tell you just what i've done can you keep a secret hey how down low does it go when your friends don't even know

i'm just an arrogant boy now you've found me out
i'm just an arrogant boy
i'm the last one around why did i get myself into a secret pain isn't real once you feel dark regret for what you've done

hey how down low does it go

i'm not the only one that can hear you whisper i should of known to never trust you now i'm sinking deeper why did i get myself into a secret into the sea
