

Quio, Bah Fangoo!

I get my claws into your flesh, you see

let your blood run for my remedy get back what you took eggsactly, now look!

every part of your body I need for plastering my way nouveaux and now whose fault is it, is it yours or mine?

think twice before you sign

REFRAIN

bah fangooh! I call up my troops, whoops!

you ninkanpoops with your silly hairdos and shoes

its mother goose wholl collect the clues, hit!

while I throws yos round like dominoes

all plants will bow when I come along - so step back!

lower your voice, don't wanna hear a quack

youve had your time to talk and be kind

now shut it or sing it again:

me muggings is going to shatter your hopes

there wont be no even earth, just slopes for you Im still your highness, so try this:

a kick up your arse is called: fly for less!
