

Quio, Rising Tide

REFRAIN

Get your raincoat on
watch out for the rain
flip up your lapels
the flood wont leave you drained dont feed me, cause im fed up, keep your head up, run down your business, your business, chitty business gets run down clown, get me crown to get goin son, get your laces undone, nackededis toes can grope for ways over fragments, hope you grow tentacles to sense your pals and the ones who are not, knockknock! please sheep leave your flock, your plug dont need no dock, and a girl dont envy cock, now empty out brain blog, note into captains log, yeah, nailed down idiots, Ive seen you lot!

Lets hope, you (re) so dope to be moped to your flow, turn mould into noble rot, and grow, sorry pals, needed to say that, ooooh! oooh! sooo much!
not actually as such, egg-sactly, wheres my brush, lets get these knots untangled, you make me bageled and ginsengled, now stop and get a plot with a jangle!

Get your raincoat on
watch out for the rain
flip up your lapels

I take a dive into your depths my head swims, my goggles are foggy to the rim, all dark there s no light in your heart, theres no room for the new theres no spark, i fill you in theres no secret, theres no reason thats my secret, to keep it all in,
dont keep it!
clear off, share and pass on, open gates!
flood the land wash away the old waste!

get your raincoat on,
watch out for the rain
the flood wont leave you drained!
