Quo Vadis, Point Of No Return (The Mute Requie

Over there lies the body, Of false hopes and unfulfilled desires. It inspires only loathing

Silence, irony Becomes it's only testimony, Contrary to the envisioned outcome and the desired result

Pity, this final outcry for sympathy Committed with such self-indulgent finality, is doomed to failure. So pathetic, unreversable and blind...

Irony and contempt
For the failed life
Seems fitting of this Mute Requiem...

Emptiness cries out my name! Emptiness cries out my name In vain

As i turn my back and walk away Maggots Assemble To begin their song.
