

R.E.O. Speedwagon, One Lonely Night

You and your baby had some words today
Til not another word was left to say
I see that grin boy
Maybe you think youll win boy
Until the sun goes down and once again boy
One lonely night
One lonely night
Thats all it takes to completely break you
They say its darkest right before the dawn
But oh those darkest hours can be so long
Youre feelin strong boy
Tellin yourself shes wrong boy
But how much longer can this night go on boy
(chorus)
Ooh shes such a good find
Have you gone and lost your mind
You should know shes one of a kind
