

R.Kelly, Come To Daddy

Ooooooooooh (I know what youre going through)
Come to me (I can see it in tour eyes)
Oh baby (cmon)
Come to daddy (you know I ain't got no problem with this) Ooooooh (just say the word, I come and get you)
Come to me, yeah
(whatever you want me to do, Ill do it for you)
Well its obvious to me that he dont love you
Baby cant you see Im that player for you
Baby talk to me help me understand
How can you go on putin up with this man
Going out your way to make him happy dont appreciate all that you give
Time to take a stand no more second chance
If you feel this way than baby take my hand
Come to daddy let me
Please your body tonight
(since he) Since wont do it right
Come to daddy let me (let me)
Please your body tonight
(since he) Since he wont do it right
It seams like everything you do for him just stop right
Same got damn excuse
Got a head ake tonight
How can you ignore
The slamminof a door
Open up your eyes its not the same no more
Girl you need a life with someone who is gonna love you Treat you like god let you free and guide you
Time to say ok
About to make a change
Dont mean no player hate
But baby come my way
All I wanna do is get next to you
Baby I can understand what youre going through It dont have to be this way if you dont want it to Baby call him up and tell him that Im leaving you
Chorus 2x
