

R. Kelly, Contagious

Here's a story about a man coming in and finding his women in bed with Well, listen:

It's 2 am just gettin ready about to check my message
No one has called but my homies and some bill collectors
Cellular rings somebody wants to borrow money
I 2 way heard she don't hit me back so then it's funny
So I called her mothers house and asked her had she seen my baby
Rolled my 6 around looking for that missing lady
Got back in turned the tv on and caught the news
Then I put my hand on my head 'cause I'm so confused
And then I turned the tv down
'cause I thought I heard a squeaky sound
Somethings going on upstairs
'cause I know nobody else lives here
As I get closer to the stairways all I hear
And then I hear my baby's voice in my ear, screaming out

Your contagious, touch me baby, give me what you got
And a man said
Sexy lady, drive me crazy, drive me wild
I just can't believe this shit

I ran upstairs looked in the closet looking for that oooh!
Said a prayer 'cause only God knows what I'm going to doooh!
What I saw was enough to drive a preacher wild
I'm in the hall contemplating in my own damn house
But what about she was a creeping with another man
The down low happening to me all over again
And then I turned the tv down
'cause I thought I heard a squeaky sound
There's something going on upstairs

'cause I know nobody else lives here
As I get closer to stairways, all I hear
And then I hear my baby's voice in my ear, screeeam!

Your contagious, touch me baby, give me what you got
Sexy lady, drive me crazy, drive me wild

What the hell is going on between the sheets in my own home
Baby wait let me explain before you start to point your cane
Girl I'm about to have a fit
Oh it's about to be some shit,
How did I get into this never should have came home with this bitch
You low down dirty women, go back to where you come from
But baby wait
But wait my ass, get the streets your ass is grass
But mr. biggs before your done
Wait how you know my name son
Honey wait, I was going to tell you
Ooh this cad looks real familiar
Umm, now don't I know you from somewhere a long time ago
No, no, I don't think so
Yeah, yeah, I feel I know you brother very well
No, no, you've mistaken me for somebody else
Frank!
Shut up! can't you see 2 men are talking
But,
But i, told your ass to get the walking
Now I think you all should leave this place
'cause I'm about to catch a case

Your contagious, touch me baby, give me what you got
Sexy lady, drive me crazy, drive me wild.....
