

Ra Ra, Violator

Walk in silence, built to lose
I'll just sit and watch TV
A magical force, hypnotic drone
I've taken all that I can see

I'm seeing change that holds me down
The recline of modern man
Negligence played and bundle of lies
And I work last and I descend

Suffer involve, adversity
So straighten up and go on blind
Sexual drive intensity
The darkest pit that you can find

Anonymous gifts will be erased
Put your life into our desk
Strange and old powers, social disgrace
Wages war with little risk

Yeah!
Ohh!

My head is always lost
And always changing mind
What's wrong just feels so right
I think I'm going blind!
