

Rab McLean, Empty Tanks

My head often drinks the fountain dry
My head is turning on tonight
My head comes and goes in spasms
My head is everywhere tonight

I look unlocked
I'm like a breeze
I'm at my ease
But I'm running on empty tanks.

My head often weaves a drunken spell
My head is dancing like a flame
My head's got a hero's jacket on it's back
My head is everywhere tonight

I look unlocked
I'm like a breeze
I'm at my ease
But I'm running on empty tanks.

My head is gonna drink that fountain dry
My head is everywhere tonight
My head is gonna get jet stream bound again
My head is everywhere tonight

I look unlocked
I'm like a breeze
I'm at my ease
But I'm running on empty tanks.
But I'm running on empty tanks.
But I'm running on empty tanks.
